

- weakly deformed pegmatite
- metagabbro
- S Catfood gneiss - q-f. gneiss w/coarse flecks of biotite and garnet.
- a Pinkeye gneiss - blue to blue-gray q-f. gneiss w/ many pink augen. Dismembered fold hooks common (transposed).
- W White gneiss - dominantly pure to off-white q-f. gneiss w/ garnet. Some interlayers darker (biotite).
- b Blue Ruin gneiss - blue-grey q-f. gneiss w/ few or no augen. Some interlayers of splendid biotite gneiss.
- p Pinkstripe gneiss - q-f. gneiss w/ biotite and prominent pink or yellow lineation.
- outcrop boundaries
- strike and dip of gneissic layering

Dept. of Geological Science
 S.U.N.Y. Albany
 1400 Washington Avenue
 ALBANY, NY 12222